

LAURETTA NEWBY-COKER

A talented stained-glass mosaic artist based in Noble, Oklahoma of the Choctaw Nation, multi-media artist Laretta Newby-Coker enjoys working with glass mosaic but also watercolor, oil painting, and mixed media.

To create her impressionistic and luminous glass mosaics, Laretta meticulously selects, cuts and places each piece by hand. Her work is on display all over the United States. She has earned a Choctaw Heritage Award and, recently, she won the Grand Award at the 2020 Red Earth Festival, a Native American culture festival.
